Sunday 14th January

A message from the Leadership team

The Christian life is 'battle and blessing, battle and blessing, battle and blessing...'

When we are in the battle it is hard to believe that it will ever come to an end. When we are in a period of blessing we sometimes expect it will go on forever. But life is not like that. There are battles and blessings.

Pastor Rick Warren says that he used to think that the Christian life was a succession of battles and blessings, whereas now he thinks of life as being on two tracks. At any given moment in life there are usually blessings, but also battles to face at the same time.

He gives the example of the huge blessing that came to him through the publication of The Purpose Driven Life, which became one of the fastest-selling Christian books of all time. But at the same time he found out that his wife, Kay, had cancer. On one track of his life there was great blessing; on the other track there was a massive battle to face.

Jesus knew all about battles and blessings. He was, and is, the supreme guide to lead us through that maze of human experience, as the ups and downs of life often occupy our personal space side by side.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

We hope you find your time of worship here refreshing and inspiring.

We invite you to stay for refreshments after worship, served in the courtyard towards the back of the building. If you want to find out more about Trinity, please speak to the Minister or someone with a name badge. A Welcome Booklet will tell you more about us, and you can leave your details for someone to contact you.

We hope the following information will be useful:-

The whole sanctuary area is covered by an Induction loop.

Cloakrooms There are toilets (incl. disabled) at the front of the church and at the back of the halls.

Provision for children: There is a crèche at the back of the church for children under 3 should you need it. You are welcome to stay and listen to the service there. Or there is a play area within the worship area where your child can find activities relevant to today's worship.
