Sunday 11th February

A message from the Leadership team

Whenever I read in the Bible about the exploits and travelling of Paul and others, their constant efforts to bring more people to know Jesus, even when they were in prison, I feel just as Ian Fosten wrote in Fresh from the Word yesterday, '...faint-hearted, overwhelmed and probably doomed to failure as far as evangelistic enterprise is concerned.' And yet, I know that I should be striving to bring new people to Jesus, but how?

I was relieved when Ian went on to write about an 'ordinary' person he knew, who just by being himself and quietly developing relationships with all sorts of people, made a far greater impression than he probably ever realised.

Whilst giving thanks for the dynamic evangelists, Ian also thanks God for '...that vast army of ordinary witnesses whose lives, much more than words, declare the truth of God.' I hope to be part of that army.

What an amazing impact we could have if everyone at Trinity was part of that army. Will you join?

John Nelson

We hope you find your time of worship here refreshing and inspiring.

We invite you to stay for refreshments after worship, served in the courtyard towards the back of the building. If you want to find out more about Trinity, please speak to the Minister or someone with a name badge. A Welcome Booklet will tell you more about us, and you can leave your details for someone to contact you.

We hope the following information will be useful:-

The whole sanctuary area is covered by an Induction loop.
Cloakrooms There are toilets (incl. disabled) at the front of the church and at the back of the halls.

Provision for children: There is a crèche at the back of the church for children under 3 should you need it. You are welcome to stay and listen to the service there. Or there is a play area within the worship area where your child can find activities relevant to today's worship.
